The storage room is an unlockable area accessible both from inside the store, and from the street. Customers will not enter the Storage room. Each section adds another 4x4m section to the storage room, and increases your. Is there a way to move an item to another shelf once it's placed in display?

I'd like to be able to move, say, a single box of cereal to a different shelf with other cereal to make room for another product type. You. Let's say I have a 2 shelves each holding 12 of an item. Do the restockers get triggered if x out of 24 items are bought or is it individual to a shelf with x out of 12 for each being the trigger?

I'm trying to get a sense if I'd have to watch the shelves during the day or if I can do checkouts. Restockers should use the box with the least amount of units before they open a new one. The game was developed by Nokta Games and.
