

Energy storage device in cuban office building

Overview

On Saturday, Cuba initiated the installation of solar energy storage batteries at four electrical substations, marking a significant step in addressing its energy challenges. These Battery Energy Storage Systems (BESS), also referred to as "concentrator units," are being placed at Cueto 220, Bayamo. Decentralized systems with renewable energy and storage could have reduced Cuba's dependence on imported fuels and prevented widespread outages. Despite abundant wind and solar availability, Cuba has yet to capitalize on these renewable sources. But here's the kicker - less than 15% have proper energy storage systems.
