Enjoybot battery : r/golfcarts

While I can't say that I have any personal experience with them, based on the reviews I've read, they are, at the very least, not bad. And if you plan on buying it through Amazon, you'll at least have a ...

What's everyone's favorite affordable lithium battery these days? : r

I ordered a set of Enjoybot batteries for it last winter, but ended up putting them in a camper trailer instead. And upon some research I'm more inclined to just go to 48v instead.
