

How to buy insurance for photovoltaic panels

Overview

All you have to do to obtain home insurance for solar panels is call your insurance company and let them know you want to add your solar installation to your home insurance policy. You will need to name the amount for which you will insure the solar panels. Yes, most homeowners insurance policies do cover solar panels, but the extent of coverage depends on several key factors including how they're installed, whether you own or lease them, and your specific policy terms. Knowing how insurance for solar installation offers complete protection against an unexpected financial blow, which can be caused by partial or complete damage to the panel system, theft, or an accident directly related to the solar installation.
