

Is the 25-year photovoltaic panel a scam

Overview

If you've received an offer for "free solar panels," it could be a scam. Always look for businesses you can trust - like Accredited Businesses using the BBB Seal. Scams, schemes and straight-up fraud abound in the dark underbelly of an otherwise light-filled industry. While there are still many honest. The scams vary, but here's the gist: someone claiming to be with the government or your utility company promises big savings on your utility bills from solar energy or other home improvements designed to increase energy efficiency. This is how door-to-door solar scams are quietly destroying seniors' lives — and how to avoid them. To avoid getting scammed, you need to know what to look out for and when to walk away.
